Summary

My career of 34 years includes the graphic art field, fine arts, and elementary art teacher. My personal evolution and vision helps me to know that I possess truth, talent and ability that is unique and highly creative.

I have always known that art was my life path, and I seek to share in ways that apply to the world today in innovative ways.

The Mission ~ To work with a team as designer or in some capacity where my creativity and thinking outside the box can be utilized best. To provide graphic expressions that convey the best message whether it be print or web presentation . My many years of experience affords me depth of knowledge in the arts fields, hands on, and I intend to use this knowledge for future endeavors as freelance designer.

My Offerings ~ I focus on using my creative energy and experience as a Graphic Artist skilled in a variety of designs, logos and marketing packages designed to strengthen business competence..

I am a visual designer with an aptitude for experimental projects.

My design skills are unique ~ I utilize the basic elements of design: color, line, shape, space, texture and value to help with the overall creation of any art projects or instruction. My training, experience, and education in art enables me to have a vast resource of ideas to share. And very importantly, other's ideas inspire me to go beyond and create things that clients envisioned.

Workshops ~ I am interested in Teaching groups or private lessons, sharing creatively and working with other artists to create meaningful art.

~ Past and current students and clientele are primarily those listed here:

Art collectors, art galleries, art enthusiasts, parents of students, adults or children who may seek creative art instruction in a wide variety of mediums from an enthusiastic artist/teacher

Organizations or individuals who may be seeking a career creative artist to assist in projects requiring their ideas becoming fine finished art.

Set design, backgrounds for theatre productions large or small Elementary/Secondary/Adult students who are interested in improving motor skills, experiment with various materials, learn the history of art, and apply art to life, possibly in a career involving some of these skills.
